

LOVE WORKS TRIP: HIGH SCHOOL

LOVE WORKS

TRIP DESCRIPTION

High schoolers will be spending ten days in Lilongwe, Malawi building relationships with locals and learning from the Somebody Cares staff. On this trip, they will spend their time in Malawian communities working on various manual labor and relational projects. This trip is an experience of a lifetime and catalytic in the faith journey of teenagers! Current 9-11th graders who are looking to expand their cultural perspective and open to a significant step in authentic faith of their own, this is a trip for them!
